PAUL EUGENE WEBSTER)

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

This case is before the Court on the United States of America's Motion for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (Doc. # 42). Because the United States sought forfeiture of specific property in the Forfeiture Allegation of the Indictment in the above case and Defendant Paul Eugene Webster consents to the forfeiture of specific property, it is ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT:

1. As a result of the guilty verdict on Count 1 of the Indictment, for which the Government sought forfeiture pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924, and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), the defendant Paul Eugene Webster shall forfeit to the United States: all firearms and ammunition involved in the commission of the violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1).

2. The Court has determined, based on the record and the forfeiture allegation in the Indictment, that the Remington, model 550-1, .22 caliber rifle, with no serial number, is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924, and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), that defendant Paul Eugene Webster has an interest in said firearm and, that the government has established the requisite nexus between said firearm and the offense for which defendant Paul Eugene Webster was found guilty.

3. Upon the entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General (or a designee) is authorized to seize the firearm and to conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating, or disposing of said firearm, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3).

4. Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General (or a designee) is authorized to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third party rights, including giving notice of this Order.

5. The United States shall publish notice of the Order and its intent to dispose of the firearm in such a manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the subject firearm.

6. Any person, other than the above named defendant, asserting a legal interest in the subject firearm may, within thirty days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his alleged interest in the subject firearm, and for an amendment of the Order of Forfeiture, pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), which incorporates Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(6).

7. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3), this Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing and shall be made part of the oral pronouncement of sentence and included in the written judgment in a criminal case. If no third party files a timely claim, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2).

8. Any petition filed by a third party asserting an interest in the subject firearm shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the subject firearm, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the subject firearm, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

9. After the disposition of any motion filed under Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

10. The United States shall have clear title to the subject firearm following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period provided in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(2), which is incorporated by Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), for the filing of third party petitions.

11. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order and to amend it as necessary pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

12. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall note entry of this Order in writing on the Judgment in a Criminal Case and forward two certified copies of this Order to the United States Attorney's Office.

DONE this 16th day of January, 2007.
